

WASHINGTON POST
AND TIMES HERALD

APR 1 1964

FOIAb3b

Swedish Colonel Faces Trial as Spy for Soviet

Reuters

STOCKHOLM, March 31 (defense headquarters and the Swedish Foreign Ministry in Stockholm between October, 1957, and June, 1963, and sold them to Russian intelligence.

0. The former air force attache faces a possible life sentence if he is found guilty.

The indictment alleged that Wennerstroem:

- Sold information on Swedish defense to Russian intelligence while serving as air attache in Moscow from 1949 to 1952.

- Sold photographs of Swedish defense documents to Russian intelligence while serving as air attache in Washington between April, 1952, and May, 1957.

- Obtained and photographed documents on Swedish defense while working at

CPYRGHT